TOWN SEAL OF WAKEFIELD

Wakefield's town seal, consisting of twin circles, is significant of the Town's history, its industrial development and its scenic beauty. The outer circle frames three dates: 1644, commemorating the date of incorporation as the Town of Reading; 1812, the date of its incorporation as South Reading; and 1868, the date when the Town's name was changed to Wakefield. A shield centers the inner circle and bears emblems symbolic of industries prominent in Wakefield's development: shoes, rattan fibre carpeting representing the rattan industry, and crossed foundry tools representing metalcasting. In the center of the shield is placed the heraldic eagle. Above the shield are the reflecting rays of the rising sun, and at the bottom of the shield is the name "Quannapowitt", name of one of the Indians who signed the deed to white settlers in 1868.
